BIO

What started as an enjoyable thing to do for close friends and neighborhood parties quickly grew into a thriving job each December because of how many people love Santa Eric and want him at their events. With an extensive background in aviation (helps the reindeer fly), teaching children, and eating cookies, you won't find a more qualified or jolly Santa Claus in all of the Wasatch Front.

Santa Eric has been visiting families and companies for over 10 years. With a naturally white beard, a cookie fed body, and a very jolly personality, people have been seeking his visits for his whole life.
