What started as an enjoyable thing to do for close friends and neighborhood parties quickly grew into a thriving job each December because of how many people love Santa Eric and want him at their events. With an extensive background in aviation (helps the reindeer fly), teaching children, and eating cookies, you won't find a more qualified or jolly Santa Claus in all of the Wasatch Front.

Santa Eric truly believes in the power of Christmas. He values the special role he plays in children and adult's lives alike. Believing that there is goodness in the world to be shared,

Santa Eric takes as much time as possible with each person he meets, will NOT charge for photographs, always will provide his own candy canes, and will not be part of any event that has alcohol or adult things. Santa Eric is the "real deal" Santa and is guaranteed to make your event magical.

BIO

What started as an enjoyable thing to do for close friends and neighborhood parties quickly grew into a thriving job each December because of how many people love Santa Eric and want him at their events. With an extensive background in aviation (helps the reindeer fly), teaching children, and eating cookies, you won't find a more qualified or jolly Santa Claus in all of the Wasatch Front.

Santa Eric has been visiting families and companies for over 10 years. With a naturally white beard, a cookie fed body, and a very jolly personality, people have been seeking his visits for his whole life.
